

Community Partnerships

January 2004

- Clearwater Public Library System partnered with many area organizations and businesses including: Barnes & Noble, Glazer Family Foundation, The Haven, Red Cross, Florida Botanical Gardens, Celebration Station, Clearwater Bar Association, AARP, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Tampa Area Romance Writers, and Pinellas County Schools.
- Clearwater Customer Service partnered with AARP Foundation to staff the reception area in the Municipal Services Building atrium and with Pinellas County Urban League to improve customer awareness of assistance for utility bill payments for low-income customers. In addition, they joined utility customers who contribute to the We Care Fund to provide over 125 customers with temporary assistance in paying their bills.
- The Police Department formed partnerships with the YWCA of Tampa Bay, the Clearwater Homeless Intervention Project (CHIP), Pinellas County Schools, Directions for Mental Health, the Regional Community Policing Institute (RCPI), the State Attorney, St. Petersburg College and numerous civic and neighborhood organizations resulting in the highest quality of public safety services.
- Clearwater continued a partnership with Ruth Eckerd Hall, contributing $2 million toward the center's $28 million renovation.
- Partnered with the Pinellas County Convention and Visitors Bureau, State of Florida and Philadelphia Phillies in the construction and promotion of the Community Sports Complex under construction on Drew Street and U.S. 19.
